Di Zhao HISTORY

As a versatile professional musician and solo flutist in various orchestras, Mr. Di Zhao was keen to build outstanding student flutes in his workshop, which he founded in Boston in 2006. Di Zhao himself has mastered every aspect of flute making and has worked with many renowned instrument makers.

His profound knowledge of music and craftsmanship helped to shape the development of the models. The headjoints, made in Boston, contribute significantly to the special sound and the excellent acoustic properties, from high-quality flutes for beginners to alto, bass and handmade concert flutes in all price categories: Di Zhao is a manufacturer with an excellent selection for every musical taste!

All Di Zhao flutes (except Junior) are equipped as standard with Pisoni deluxe pads, E-mechanism, offset G and are delivered including swab, wooden case and case cover.

JUNIOR

The Di Zhao Junior model is a student instrument for small hands, specially designed to meet the requirements of beginners, with easy response in both the high and low register.
